RENEWED PETITION UNDER 37 CFR 1.137(b)

Commissioner for Patents
United States Patent and Trademark Office
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Attn: Office of Petitions

In response to the Decision on Petition dated June 4, 2009, reconsideration of the Decision dismissing the earlier petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) is respectfully requested.

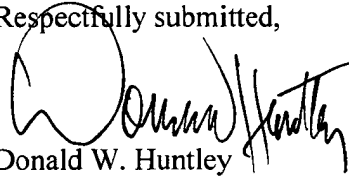

The applicants hereby confirm that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of the present petition was unintentional. As noted previously, the delay resulted from litigation between the applicants. While trying to avoid unduly burdensome attachments to the present Renewed Petition, the applicants attach herewith the initial Complaint of the applicant Harris against the applicant Garnier as "Attachment A." The Complaint, filed on April 27, 2007, details unresolved issues of inventorship and ownership of the present application. With these outstanding issues of inventorship and ownership, the applicant Harris was uncertain whether he was legally authorized to file a reply to the outstanding Office Action. The lawsuit was terminated in late 2008, and a binding arbitration hearing scheduled for January 22, 2009. The hearing was cancelled late in the day on that date after extensive discussion, and the present petition filed thereafter.

In the event that the present Petition is found not to be unintentional, in the alternative, the handling of the Petition as unavoidable under 37 C.F.R. 1.137 (a) is respectfully requested.

An Amendment responsive to the prior Office Action was previously submitted in the Petition filed on April 21, 2009.

Accordingly, reconsideration and granting of the present Petition is in order, and such action is earnestly solicited. If any issues remain outstanding, the Office is urged to contact the undersigned by telephone to expedite their resolution.

Respectfully submitted,

5. After preliminary testing of the Inventions, Plaintiff discussed the details of the Inventions with Defendant, and they agreed to pursue commercialization of the devices. Plaintiff and Defendant retained patent counsel, who prepared and filed two patent applications on behalf of Plaintiff and Defendant.

6. One patent application is entitled "Vibration Dampening Device and Method," and was filed in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on December 12, 2003. The application was accorded Serial Number 10/734,322 (the "'322 application").

7. The '322 application relates to the device designated as the "wrist band."

8. A second patent application was also entitled "Vibration Dampening Device and Method," and was filed in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on June 4, 2004. The application was accorded Serial Number 10/734,322 (the "'903 application").

9. The '903 application relates to the device designated as the "patch."

10. At the time of execution and filing of the '322 and '903 applications, Plaintiff instructed counsel to designate Defendant as a coinventor on the mistaken belief that such designation was appropriate on the basis of their proposed business partnership.

11. Plaintiff and Defendant jointly formed two corporations, one of which being Wristband Enterprises, L.L.C. (Wristband). Wristband was intended to hold the intellectual property relating to the Inventions for purposes of commercial exploitation and licensing.

12. The other corporation jointly formed by Plaintiff and Defendant was SportsBands, Inc. (SportsBands). SportsBands was intended to handle manufacturing, distribution and sales of the Inventions.

COUNT I - BREACH OF ORAL AGREEMENT

13. Paragraphs 1 through 12 of this Complaint are incorporated as if set for in full herein.

14. Plaintiff and Defendant jointly negotiated an Operating Agreement in 2004 for the operation of Wristband. A draft of that Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

15. Plaintiff and Defendant negotiated an Memorandum of Understanding in 2006 for the operation of Wristband and SportsBands. A draft of that Memorandum of Understanding is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

16. Plaintiff assigned the '322 application and the '903 application to Wristband on assurance by Defendant that the proposed Agreement would be executed.

17. Since assignment of the '322 application and the '903 application, Defendant has refused to execute the proposed Operating Agreement or Memorandum of Understanding, and refused to permit Plaintiff to participate in the management of Wristband and SportsBands.

18. Defendant has marketed the Inventions, and has refused to render an accounting for the manufacture, use, and sale of the Inventions to the Plaintiff.

COUNT II - CORRECTION OF INVENTORSHIP

19. Paragraphs 1 through 17 of this Complaint are incorporated as if set for in full herein.

20. Plaintiff is the sole inventor of the Inventions.

21. Both the '332 application and the '903 application incorrectly name Plaintiff and Defendant as joint inventors.

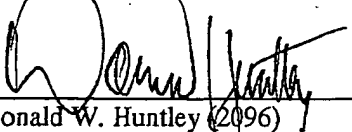

22. Defendant has refused to enter into a Petition to the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks to correct inventorship on the '332 and '903 applications.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant as follows:

- (a) for the imposition of a constructive trust against Defendant with respect to Plaintiff's share of all funds, assets, receivables, or things of value or other consideration received or to be received by Defendant from the manufacture, use and sale of the Inventions by Defendant;
- (b) for an accounting of the business activities of Wristband and SportsBands;
- (c) for an order compelling Defendant to join in a Petition to the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks to correct the inventorship of the '332 application and '903 application;
- (d) for compensatory, consequential, and punitive damages;
- (e) for costs of filing suit;
- (f) for attorney fees; and
- (g) for such other relief as this Honorable Court deems just and equitable.

Respectfully submitted,

In this regard, the Manager shall be guided by, and enjoy all the protection available under, the Business Judgment Rule applicable to directors of corporations under the Delaware General Corporation Law. The Manager may perform any acts which the Manager believes in good faith are in the best interest of the Company, without the need to consult with the Members before any decision.

(b) The Company shall pay or reimburse, in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding, expenses incurred by the Indemnified Party in connection with any action, suit or proceeding described hereinabove, against receipt from the Indemnified Party of written confirmation that it will return any amount so advanced by the Company to the extent that it subsequently is determined that the Indemnified Party was not entitled to receive them.

(d) The Manager may cause the Company to purchase and maintain insurance or another arrangement on behalf of the Indemnified Parties against any liability asserted against any Indemnified Party and incurred by any Indemnified Party in that capacity arising out of the Indemnified Party's status in that capacity, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify the Indemnified Party against that liability under this Section. The indemnification provided by this Section shall be in addition to any other rights to which the Indemnified Parties may be entitled under any agreement, vote, rule of law or otherwise, both as to actions in the Indemnified Party's capacity as a Manager or any officer of the Company and as to actions in any other capacity, and shall continue as to an Indemnified Party who has ceased to serve in such capacity and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, successors and assigns of the Indemnified Party.

tion applies if the transaction was otherwise permitted by this Agreement.

(f) It is the intent of this Section that the Company indemnify the Indemnified Parties to the maximum extent permitted by law.

4.9 Liability of Manager. No Manager shall be personally liable for the obligations of the Company. No Manager shall be liable, responsible or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Company or any Member for any action taken or failure to act (even if such action or failure to act constituted the simple negligence of that Manager) on behalf of the Company within the scope of the authority conferred on the Manager by this Agreement or by law, unless such act or failure to act was performed or omitted wilfully, intentionally or in bad faith.

4.10 Resignation. A Manager may resign upon written notice to each other member of the Committee, or if there are no other Managers, to each Member.

4.11 Compensation. The Members may, by Majority Vote, authorize a reasonable salary to the Manager for services.

5. ALLOCATIONS; DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 Distributions/Available Cash. The Manager shall determine the amount of Available Cash from time to time and shall report the amount of Available Cash and make any distributions thereof to the Interest Holders no later than ninety (90) days after the end of each quarter. The Manager and the Company shall be under no duty to make distributions except as expressly provided in this Agreement or as determined from time to time by the Manager.

(a) Distributions, when made, shall be made to the Interest Holders in proportion to their Units in the Company; provided, however, that if the Manager determines that an Interest Holder is not able to manage funds due to illness or infirmity, the Manager may, in its discretion, directly apply the distribution for the benefit of such Interest Holder, distribute the distribution to a legal or natural guardian for such Interest Holder or hold such distribution in escrow for such Interest Holder until such illness or infirmity ends. In the determination of whether an Interest Holder is unable to manage funds due to illness or infirmity, the Manager may rely on the determination of a physician selected by the Manager.

(b) No compensation to a Member who renders services to the Company, nor reimbursement to a Member for expenses incurred on behalf of the Company, shall affect the allocation and distribution of profits or losses of the Company, nor distributions of its Available Cash.

5.2 Allocation of Profit and Loss. Profit and Loss for tax purposes shall be allocated in the same percentages as Available Cash is distributed to Interest Holders for that year.

5.3 Contributed Property and Book-Ups. Income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the Company shall, solely for tax purposes, be allocated among the Interest Holders to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of the property to the Company and its fair market value at the date of contribution. If the adjusted book value of any asset is adjusted as provided herein, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to the asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of the asset for income tax purposes and adjusted book value as required under §704(c) of the Code and the Regulations.

5.4 Other Adjustments. If any asset of the Company is distributed in kind to Interest Holders, such asset shall be valued on the basis of its fair market value, and any Interest Holder entitled to a partial interest in such asset shall receive that interest as a tenant-in-common with all other Interest Holders so entitled. Unless the Members otherwise agree, the fair market value of such assets shall be determined by an independent appraiser who shall be selected by the Manager. The Profit or Loss for each unsold asset shall be determined as if the asset had been sold at its fair market value, and the Profit or Loss shall be allocated as provided earlier in this Section 5 and shall be properly credited or charged to the capital accounts of the Interest Holders prior to the distribution of the assets in liquidation.

6. DISPOSITION OF INTERESTS IN THE COMPANY

6.1 Transfers by Members. No Member shall sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any Unit except (1) to an existing Member or (2) upon approval by a Majority Vote.

(a) No Member shall pledge or otherwise encumber all or any part of his Units without the written consent of a Majority Vote.

Such notice shall constitute an offer to sell to the Company all or any portion of the Units identified therein at the aggregate First Refusal Price and on the terms therein.

(b) The First Refusal Offer may be accepted, in whole or in part, by the Company by giving notice of acceptance to the Member within sixty (60) days after receiving the First Refusal Offer, which notice of acceptance shall specify the number of Units to be purchased by the Company.

(c) The closing of any purchase pursuant to this Section shall be held on the 20th day after the Company gives its notice of acceptance, or the next business day if the 20th day is a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, at the Company's principal business office, or at such other time or place as the parties may agree. At such closing, the Member shall execute and deliver to the Company such documentation evidencing the transfer as the Company may reasonably require, and the Company shall pay the Member ten percent (10) of the purchase price at the time of the transfer, and shall give a Note in a substantially the form set forth in Exhibit A, guaranteed by the other Members, for payment of the remainder of the purchase price in five amortized annual installments at the Prime Rate plus two (2) percent.

(d) If the Company does not give notice of acceptance during such 60-day period, or if the Company gives notice of acceptance with respect to less than all of the Units covered by the First Refusal Offer, the Member may, within the 30-day period immediately after such 60-day period expires, sell all or any part of the Units covered by the First Refusal Offer which are not covered by a notice of acceptance of the Company at a price per Unit not less than the First Refusal Price and on the terms other than price set forth in the First Refusal Offer; provided, however, that the Member shall not sell, assign, transfer, hypothecate, encumber, pledge or otherwise dispose of such Units unless the proposed transferee, as a condition to any such transfer, has consented to be bound by all of the provisions of this Agreement by executing and delivering a written consent thereto in substantially the form of Exhibit B. If the Member does not make such disposition within such 90-day period, no subsequent disposition of any of the Member's Units may be made without again complying with this Section.

6.3 Death of Member. Upon the death of a Member, any Surviving Member shall have the right to purchase the Units of the deceased Member pursuant to this Section.

(a) Within sixty (60) days after a Member has died, any Surviving Member may give written notice to the deceased Member's Executor and each other Member of such Member's interest in purchasing the Units of the deceased Member. A Surviving Member who does not give such notice shall not have the right to purchase the deceased Member's Units under this Section.

(b) If a Surviving Member does give such notice (such Member being known as an "Offering Member"), unless the parties reach agreement on the terms and conditions of sale, then within ninety (90) days after the death of the deceased Member, the Value of the deceased Member's Units in the Company shall be determined. All costs of determining the Value shall be borne half by the Executor and half by the Offering Members, except that if each Offering Member gives a Withdrawal Notice, the Offering Members shall pay all the costs of appraisal.

(c) Within fifteen (15) days after the Value of the deceased Member's Units has been finally determined, an Offering Member may give notice that he is no longer interested in purchasing the deceased Member's Units ("Withdrawal Notice"). An Offering Member who gives a timely Withdrawal Notice shall not be required to purchase the deceased Member's Units. An Offering Member who does not give a timely Withdrawal Notice shall be required to purchase the deceased Member's Units.

(d) Closing on the sale of the deceased Member's Units shall be held on the 60th day after the Value of the deceased Member's Units has been finally determined, or the next business day if the 60th day is not a business day, at the Company's principal business office, or at such other date, time or place as the parties may agree. At any such closing:

(1) The Executor shall execute and deliver such documentation evidencing the transfer as the Company and the purchaser may reasonably require, and

(2) Unless the parties agree otherwise, the purchaser shall pay the Member ten percent (10) of the purchase price at closing, and shall give a Note in substantially the form in Exhibit A, secured by a mortgage on all real estate of the Company, for payment of the remainder of the purchase price in five amortized annual installments at the Prime Rate plus two (2) percent.

(e) If there is no Offering Member, or if each Offering Member gives a Withdrawal Notice, then all Units of the deceased Member shall be treated as having been assigned to the heirs, legatees, trustees or beneficiaries of the deceased Member, who shall be treated as Assignees of the deceased Member's Units. Such Assignees may be admitted into the Company as Members, only upon the approval of a Majority Vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the death of the last Member, the distributees of his Units, and the Assignees of the Units of any other deceased Member, shall be permitted to become Members of the Company, subject to the following section.

6.4 Agreement of New Member to Be Bound. A proposed transferee of Units, or any other person who is permitted to become a Member, may become a Member only after such transferee or other person has, as a condition of such transfer, executed and delivered a written agreement to be bound by all of the terms of this Agreement, in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit B.

6.5 Assignments by Members. An Interest Holder may assign the rights to distributions with respect to his or her Membership Interest upon prior written notice to the Manager. An assignee of such rights to distributions shall not, unless admitted as a Member of the Company, have any right to inspect the Company's books and records, nor any rights of a Member or a Membership Interest, nor any right to bring a derivative action with respect to the Company. After assigning the distribution rights, a Member shall have no further voting rights with respect to such Units.

6.6 Withdrawal of Member. If a Member transfers all of his, her or its Membership Interests at a time when such Member has a capital account that is less than zero, such Member shall cause to be contributed sufficient cash to the Company to increase such capital account to zero before any transfer of such Units shall be effective. Until such payments have been made, no distributions shall be made with respect to such Units.

6.7 Section 754 Election. If the Company is subject to Subchapter K of the Code, then upon the transfer of a Membership Interest, the Company shall, if requested by a Member, elect under §754 of the Code to adjust the basis of its assets for federal income tax purposes, if the requesting Member pays the additional bookkeeping and accounting costs resulting from such election.

7. DISSOLUTION; MERGER; CONVERSION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company may be terminated and dissolved if, when and under such circumstances as determined by a Majority Vote.

7.2 Termination and Winding up of the Company. If the Company is dissolved, an accounting of the Company's assets, liabilities and operations through dissolution shall be made, and the affairs of the Company shall be wound up and terminated.

(a) The Manager will appoint one or more persons as liquidating trustee of the Company, who shall be responsible for winding up the business of the Company and determining all matters in connection therewith (including, arrangements with creditors, sale of assets of the Company and the amount of reserves to cover contingent liabilities) as it deems advisable subject to the standards of the Business Judgment Rule under Delaware corporate law. The liquidating trustee may liquidate the assets of the Company as promptly as consistent with obtaining fair value therefor, and the proceeds, to the extent sufficient, will be applied first to discharge the Company's liabilities to its creditors (including Interest Holders who are creditors) in the order of priority as provided by law, and thereafter to the Interest Holders in proportion to their Units.

(b) After the assets of the Company have been distributed, the Company shall terminate under the Act. Any funds that are thereafter released from the cash reserve fund shall be distributed to the Interest Holders in proportion to their Units as of the termination of the Company.

7.3 Merger. The Company shall merge with or into another entity under such terms and conditions as set by a Majority Vote.

7.4 Conversion. The Company shall be converted into another entity, or change its domicile, under such terms and conditions as set by a Majority Vote.

8. BOOKS AND RECORDS; BANK ACCOUNTS

8.1 Books. The Company shall maintain its books and records at its principal place of business. Such books and records shall be kept on the basis of a calendar year and will reflect all Company transactions and be appropriate and adequate for conducting the Company's business. The Company shall furnish, at its expense, to each Member a balance sheet, an income statement, and an annual statement of source and application of funds of the Company (all of which may be unaudited) and shall make reasonable efforts to cause to be delivered to each Member on or before March 15 of each year such financial statements for the immediately preceding calendar year. In addition, the Company shall prepare and furnish to each Member, at least once each year, a report providing an analysis of the Company's operations during the prior calendar year. Each Member, at his, her or its own expense, shall have the right upon reasonable notice to inspect the books and records of the Company during business hours at the principal place of business of the Company.

8.2 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company will be deposited in its name in one or more accounts maintained with such bank or banks selected by the Manager. The funds of the Company shall not be commingled with the funds of any other Person. Checks shall be drawn upon the Company account or accounts only for the purposes of the Company and shall be signed by the Manager or an officer designated by the Manager.

8.3 Preservation of Records. For the term of the Company and for six (6) years thereafter, the Manager shall maintain and preserve all books of account and other relevant documents.

8.4 Tax Elections. The Members intend that the Company shall be treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. Otherwise, and except as specifically otherwise provided in this Agreement, all elections required or permitted to be made of the Company under the Code shall be made by the Manager in such manner as in the Manager's reasonable judgment shall be most advantageous to the Members. Each of the Members shall, upon request, supply the information necessary to properly give effect to any such election.

8.5 Tax Matters. If the Company is subject to Subchapter K of the Code, John E. Garnier shall be the initial Tax Matters Partner. The Manager may designate a different Tax Matters Partner by giving written notice to the existing TMP and following such other procedures required by the Code. The TMP may resign by giving written notice to the Manager and following such other procedures required by the Code. If there is a vacancy in the position of TMP, whether due to resignation, death or Disability, the Manager shall designate a new TMP.

(a) The TMP is authorized and required to represent the Company (at the Company's expense) in connection with all examinations of the Company's affairs by tax authorities, including resulting administrative and judicial proceedings, and to expend Company funds for professional services and costs associated therewith. Each Member agrees to cooperate with the TMP and to do or refrain from doing any or all things reasonably requested by the TMP to conduct such proceedings. In addition, each Member agrees that (1) it will not file a statement under §6224(c)(3)(B) of the Code prohibiting the TMP from entering into a settlement on its behalf with respect to Company items, (2) it will not form or become a member of a group of Members having a five percent (5%) or greater interest in the profits of the Company under §6223(b)(2) of the Code, and (3) the TMP is authorized to file a copy of this Agreement with the IRS pursuant to §6224(b) of the Code if necessary to perfect a Member's waiver of rights hereunder.

(b) The TMP will give notice to all the Members within thirty (30) days (in advance, unless impossible), of:

(1) The receipt by the Company of notification from the IRS of its intent to conduct an audit of the Company;

 - (5) Notice of the Company's decision not to file a petition for judicial review of any final Company administrative adjustment; and
 - (6) Any other information required by §6223(g) of the Code.
- (c) The Company will reimburse the TMP for all expenses incurred in connection with any administrative or judicial proceeding hereunder.

9. COVENANT OF MEMBERS AGAINST COMPETITION

9.1 No Person, while a Member or Assignee, or for five (5) years thereafter, shall, without the prior written consent of the Company given by Unanimous Vote, directly or indirectly, as shareholder, owner, principal, agent, officer, director, employee, consultant, lender, or in any other capacity, alone or in association with any other Person (a) carry on, be engaged, connected or take part in, render services to, or own, share in the earnings of, or invest in, any Person engaged in competition with the Business of the Company; (b) induce or attempt to influence any employee, agent or representative of the Company to terminate such person's employment, consulting or other relationship with the Company; or (c) request, advise or suggest to any present or past customer or client of the Company to withdraw, curtail or cancel any business with the Company, or otherwise solicit any such past or present customer to terminate, reduce or otherwise alter, to the Company's detriment, its relationship with the Company.

9.2 No Member shall at any time (a) disclose, communicate or divulge to or use for Member's benefit or for the direct or indirect benefit of any other person, firm, or entity (other than to or for the benefit of the Company), or (b) reproduce, copy or otherwise make available (other than to or for the benefit of the Company), in whole or in part, any Confidential Information of the Company made known to, learned or acquired by Member while an owner or Assignee of Units, until such information shall have first become public knowledge without violation by Member of his duty of confidentiality to the Company.

9.3 The covenants in this Article do not prohibit any Member from ownership in a publicly-traded corporation.

9.4 Each Member acknowledges that the restrictions contained in this Article, in view of the nature of the business of the Company, are reasonable and necessary in order to protect the legitimate interests of the Company and that any violation would result in irreparable injuries to the Company and monetary damages would be inadequate to compensate the Company for such violation and each Member therefore acknowledges that, in the event of his violation of such restrictions, the Company shall be entitled to obtain from any court of competent jurisdiction preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, as well as damages and an equitable accounting of all earnings, profits and other benefits lost in connection with such violation, which right shall be cumulative and in addition to any other rights or remedies to which the Company may be entitled. If for any reason the restrictions contained in this Section should be adjudged unreasonable in any proceedings, then the period of time or scope of such restrictions (or both) shall be reduced in time or scope (or both) so that such restrictions may be enforced in such manner as is adjudged to be reasonable.

10. MEETINGS AND ACTIONS

10.1 Actions of Members. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Members shall be taken by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by such number of Members entitled to vote and delivered to the Manager for inclusion in the minutes or for filing with the Company records. Such action is effective when sufficient Members have signed and delivered the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date. No meeting shall be required to take any action required or permitted to be taken by the Members under this Agreement.

10.2 Meetings.

(a) Meetings of the Members or the Committee may be held at any time or place in Delaware whenever called by a member of the body whose meeting is to be called. Notice of a meeting shall be given by the person calling the meeting at least seven (7) days before the special meeting, unless all members of the Committee waive in writing their right to such notice. A majority in interest of Members or a majority of all members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum.

(b) Telephonic Meetings. Persons entitled to attend a meeting may participate in a meeting thereof by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this by-law shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

(c) Conduct of Meeting. Meetings shall be presided over by the Manager or in his absence by a chairman chosen at the meeting. The Secretary shall act as secretary of the meeting, but in his absence the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting.

MISCELLANEOUS

10.3 Complete Agreement. This Agreement and the Certificate constitute the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement among the Members and replace and supersede all prior agreements by and among the members or any of them. No representation, statement, or condition or warranty not contained in this Agreement or the Certificate shall be binding upon the Members or have any force or effect whatsoever.

10.4 Governing Law. This Agreement and the rights of the parties hereunder will be governed by, interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of Delaware. All disputes relating to the construction and application of this Agreement shall be determined before the courts of the State of Delaware or in the Federal Court for the District of Delaware, except that no judicial proceeding may be instituted among the Members until the parties have made a good faith effort to resolve all disputes by mediation.

10.5 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Members and their respective distributees, successors and assigns.

10.6 Headings. All headings herein are inserted only for convenience and ease of reference and are not to be considered in the construction or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement.

10.7 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, such provision will be fully severable; this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part of this Agreement; and all other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement. In lieu of such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision, there will be added automatically as a part of this Agreement a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid and enforceable.

10.8 Multiple Parts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument.

10.9 Additional Documents and Acts. Each Member agrees to execute and deliver such additional documents and instruments and to perform such additional acts as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, carry out and perform all of the terms, provisions and conditions of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

10.10 No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is made solely among and for the benefit of the Members, and no other persons shall have any rights, interest or claims hereunder or be entitled to any benefits under or on account of this Agreement as a third-party beneficiary or otherwise.

Now therefore, in consideration of TEN DOLLARS ($10.00) and other good and valuable consideration, being paid by Garnier and Harris to the LLC, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The Entities assign the patents, should they be issued, and/or all intellectual property rights, title and interest in the Band and the Patch to Harris and Garnier as equal tenants in common, subject to certain terms and conditions set forth herein so that Harris and Garnier may independently produce and market products based on the patent applications (the "Licenses");

3. All products that either Harris and Garnier produce in conjunction with this Agreement will be serially numbered for merchandise tracking, whereby Garnier and Harris will each have a unique identifying sequence within the serial number;

6. Intentionally omitted.

7. The LLC, Garnier and Harris shall each provide quarterly accounting reports to the other two parties hereto to ensure enforcement of paragraph 6 above, to support claims made under paragraph 10 below, and to ensure that the parties are maintaining adequate business records;

8. In recognition of Harris' ownership of the LLC's former business location, and his possession of the assets of the LLC, Harris shall timely provide access to the location and/or the site where the LLC's assets are maintained to allow Garnier and the LLC to prepare a current accounting and inventory of all business assets, as well as the return (or compensation for the loss) of certain of Garnier's personal items;

9. In recognition of the ongoing LLC accounting dispute, all business enterprise items relating to the Band and the Patch, including, but not limited to, materials, customer files, software, and manufacturing tools, shall be deposited with a mutually acceptable third party until such time as the ongoing accounting dispute is resolved; thereafter, the parties shall jointly proceed to dissolve the Entities.

10. The parties agree to binding arbitration in New Castle County within 24 months of the effective date of this Agreement to resolve all LLC accounting disputes, including any amounts owed to any current or former distributors.

Formatted: Bullets and Numbering

11. The parties intend this Agreement to be binding upon their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns;

12. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware.

13. This Agreement constitutes the full and complete agreement between the parties hereto and the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior written or oral negotiations, commitments or agreements between the parties, including without limitation any negotiations, commitments or agreements.
